RMCG

Consultants for Business, Communities & Environment

» Strong and effective communities are the most powerful way to drive lasting sustainability.

RMCG is a small consultancy based in Bendigo and Camberwell which specialises in working with business, community and government to promote sustainable use of water and other natural resources. We have a particular commitment to rural and regional communities.

» Our Business

RMCG supports communities, business and government to:

- develop collaborative solutions to complex problems;
- adapt to change; and
- work towards environmental, social and economic sustainability.

RMCG adds value to those decisions through:

- high quality professional input;
- innovative approaches;
- in-depth understanding of complex problems;
- personal commitment; and
- strong values.

» Our Services

RMCG is committed to providing services of the highest quality.

We bring in-depth understanding of the issues, so we can offer advice and deliver robust solutions based on high quality information and a detailed analysis of complex problems.

RMCG develops an approach for each project that matches the needs of the client and demands of the subject. We bring a range of skills and disciplines to generate new insights. We develop solutions that command respect.
